WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 11.—In the Senate, yesterday, Mr. Mitchell stated that he would soon propose to renew a bill for the relief of J. Milton Best, Kentucky, which had been passed by the House.

Mr. Mitchell announced his intention to make a speech on the occupation of Petersburg, Va., in the late election. The revised statutes were taken up and amended to require ordinance officers and officers having charge of ordinance to make quarterly reports.

HOUSE.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 11.—In the House, Mr. Holman's amendment to the Consular and Diplomatic Bill was lost by a vote of 100 to 50. Consent was given for the printing of election testimony. Mr. Willard offered a substitute for the Silver Commission bill, which authorizes the President to appoint three members of the International Convention for the purpose of which may be to fix the relation of gold and silver, and also, authorizing him to extend invitations to countries in which gold and silver are both in legal use.

The Ohio Legislature.

COLUMBUS, Jan. 11.—Among the bills read a second time and referred was one by Curtis, to punish officers for accepting bribes or compounding felonies.

Mr. Monahan offered a joint resolution providing for a committee to inquire into the causes of the trouble between the coal miners and the mine operators, and request a remedy for strikes. Also, a resolution calling upon our Senators and Representatives in Congress to secure an enactment for counting the Electoral vote, which, by its reasonable, will commend itself to the people and relieve the country of suspense.

Mr. Reese offered a resolution that the count wait on Hon. Wm. A. Wheeler, and invite him to the bar.

Reese, Hudson and Warnock were named as the committee.

At 11:50 they appeared at the bar, accompanied by Mr. Wheeler. The Senate then took a recess of ten minutes to allow the count to wait on Mr. Wheeler.

Mr. Bates introduced a bill to pay the Judges of the Supreme Court $4,000 a year.

Mr. Ransom introduced a lengthy amendment to the Police Bill of Cincinnati. Read the first time and referred to the committee.

HOUSE.

COLUMBUS, Jan. 11.—In the House, Brunner's House resolution requesting the Commissioners of Railroads and Telegraphs to inform the House whether railroad companies operating in this State have complied with the law in refusing to burning candles for illuminating cars was taken from the tables and adopted.

In the afternoon several bills were introduced.

The adjournment resolution was reconsidered, amended, and, after a long debate, finally passed in such shape as to provide for adjournment from Friday, 12th, to Tuesday, 16th; from Friday, February 9th, to the 13th, and similarly every three weeks thereafter.

Mr. Quinly's bill to extend the time for the payment of the first installment of taxes to January 20th of each year.

A joint resolution providing for the printing of sixteen thousand copies of the Secretary of State's report, provoked sharp discussion on the errors therein. It was amended to provide for the correction of the errors in the last report. Referred to the Committee on Printing.
